MISS WARWICK HONORS VISITOR AND COLLEGE GIRL

Miss Lucile Warwick was hostess on Thursday afternoon at a charmingly planned tea in her home on Carr avenue in honor of Miss Marjorie Demorest, of Princeton, N. J., the guest of Mrs. Frank Hill, and Miss Kathryn Taylor, who is home for the holidays from Sweet Briar college.

The Christmas colors were effectively carried out in Richmond roses arranged in crystal vases and ropes of smilax festooned about the tea table and chandeliers. Palms and ferns banked the mantels and formed a background for the attractively attired guests.

Mrs. Louis Woods and Mrs. Reginald Orgill poured tea during the afternoon.

Miss Warwick, gowned in black chiffon velvet with touches of henna and wearing a corsage bouquet of Aspid. Ward roses, was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. A. J. Warwick, who wore a handsomely imported model of blue headed georgette.

Miss Demorest was gowned in gray duvetyne with squirrel trimmings and hat in harmony. Miss Taylor wore a French model of blue headed georgette, crepe over satin and hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and valley lilies.

About 60 friends enjoyed Miss Warwick's hospitality.

HOLIDAY DANCING PARTY IN HONOR OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clinton Barker will entertain with one of the most enjoyable holiday dancing parties on Thursday evening in their home on Harbert avenue in honor of their attractive young daughter, Miss Evelyn Barker.

Truzy wreaths, caught with tulle bows and many Christmas ornaments, with red-shaded lights will make an attractive setting in the room. Thrown open for dancing, which will be enjoyed by the 75 members of the school and college sets included among the guests.

Between dances refreshing punch will be dispensed and at a late hour a delicious ice course will be served.

For the evening, Mrs. Barker will be gowned in black satin with jet trimmings. Donald Bode will receive with the honoree, who will wear a shiny frock of flesh-tinted tulle embroidered in silver over orchid metal cloth, with trimmings of French flowers in pastel shades.

ENTERTAINED COLLEGE GIRLS AT ORPHEUM BOX PARTY

Mrs. George E. Neuhardt was the hostess at a delightful affair on Thursday afternoon when she entertained with a box party at the Orpheum theater in honor of her charming young daughter, Miss Ernestine Neuhardt.

During the performance the guests enjoyed delicious bonbons presented in individual boxes tied with holiday colors.

For the afternoon, the honoree was attractively gowned in black rayon embroidered in silver and pearl gray, with a black picture hat.

Mrs. Neuhardt was assisted in chaperoning the 40 young people who enjoyed her hospitality by Mrs. D. F. Carruthers, Mrs. Frank L. Lang and Miss Carolyn Douglas.

VISITOR HONOREE AT HOLIDAY AFFAIR

One of the happiest of the holiday affairs enjoyed by the school girls was the luncheon and card party tendered on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Mildred DeLoach in the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. DeLoach, on Union avenue, in honor of an attractive young visitor, Miss Gertrude Cooper, of Kansas City.

The rooms thrown open to the guests were beautifully decorated in red and green, artistically carrying out a holiday scheme, and on each of the daintily appointed tables, where a delicious menu was served, was a miniature Christmas tree, bright with ornaments. At the conclusion of the menu the guests enjoyed an interesting game of 500, in which pretty prizes were awarded to the winners.

For the afternoon the charming young hostess was gowned in bronze velvet with a beautiful Roman grille, with which she wore a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses. The honoree wore a lovely frock of brown duvetyne with an orange girdle and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies.

The guest list included 50 friends of the hostess.

POPULAR VISITORS HONORED WITH BOX PARTY AT ORPHEUM

One of the most charmingly planned box parties of the holiday season was given on Thursday afternoon at the Orpheum theater by Mrs. Edwin Wiggins in honor of her sisters, Mrs. Thomas J. Dixon, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Glenn Q. Pierce, of Norton, Kan., who have spent the holidays as her guest.

The favors for the afternoon were fashioned round bouquets and during the performance delicious bonbons were enjoyed. The guests were entertained later with a tea at the hotel Peabody where the table was attractively decorated, the centerpiece being white narcissi and ferns.

Mrs. Wiggins wore a becoming frock of blue beaded taffeta and a hat of brown satin with spring flowers. Mrs. Dixon was gowned in midnight blue satin with which she wore a brown duvetyne hat, and Mrs. Pierce wore a handsome gown of delft blue rayon silk with touches of lace and a blue hat with ostrich trimmings.

The guest list included Mrs. Thomas J. Dixon, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Glenn Q. Pierce, of Norton,

Entertainments

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE SETS ENTERTAINED AT DANCE

Members of the school and college sets will be entertained at a delightful dancing party given on Thursday evening by Dr. and Mrs. James William Monks in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Virginia Francis, and also in honor of their nephew, Gerald Fay, who is home from college.

Miss Riley's dancing studio, which will be the scene of the affair, has been artistically decorated to carry out a holiday motif in red and green.

Mrs. Monks will be handsomely gowned for the evening and Miss Francis will wear a lovely dance frock of blue taffeta draped in blue tulle trimmed with pink rosettes.

Delicious refreshments will be served to the guests during the evening.

MR. AND MRS. BOYCE HONOR LOVELY YOUNG DAUGHTERS

The beautiful new suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyce, on Highland avenue, was the scene of the season's most jolly parties on Thursday evening when they entertained with a dancing party for their young daughters, Florence and Jane.

The home is so attractive that only a few cut flowers and ferns will be used in the decoration. Delicious punch will be enjoyed during the dancing.

These young ladies are entertaining a house party of young people from Tullahoma, Miss., who will assist them in entertaining their friends.

Miss Florence Boyce was gowned in a beautiful dancing frock of pink taffeta, with silver trimmings, and Miss Jane wore a stunning gown of blue net over silk with trimmings of gold.

Those who are numbered among the house guests are Misses Mildred Steger, Margaret Magruder, Elmer Draughton, Louise Warfield and Will Jacques and Messrs. William Warfield, Will and Oscar Houston and Maury Wadley, all of Tullahoma.

In Honor of Miss Dresser

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hill entertained at a dinner at the Big Tree inn on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Louise Dresser, the actress.

The dining room was prettily decorated with the holiday spirit.

Those present were Miss Dresser, Mr. Jack Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. V. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kallisher, Mr. James Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. B. Hill.

In Honor of Visitor

Mr. James Gorman gave a dinner at the Big Tree inn on Wednesday

Entertainments

Mrs. Burgie Entertains

Mrs. J. L. Burgie entertained on Wednesday afternoon with a delightful box party at the Orpheum theater in honor of her attractive young daughter, Miss Frances Burgie.

About 20 young girls had the pleasure of enjoying Mrs. Burgie's hospitality and to each was presented an individual box of bonbons.

Mrs. Burgie was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, W. P. Short.

Mrs. Maupin Honored

Miss Lucille Gage entertained a few friends at cards on Wednesday afternoon in her home on Union avenue in special compliment to a charming young bride, Mrs. Bayard Maupin, formerly Miss Lilliclax.

Tables of roses added to the attractiveness of the rooms where the tables were arranged for the game of bridge, in which the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Watson and Mrs. G. A. Boldt.

To the honoree two husbands presented a hand embroidered guest towel.

At the close of the game a delicious collation was served to the guests who had the pleasure of being present.

Granddaughter Honoree

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barksdale entertained on Thursday afternoon with a unique and delightful luncheon and tea at the Country club in honor of their attractive young granddaughter, Miss Kathryn Lee Barksdale.

Following the delicious menu, an interesting and original game "Fishing in the sea of matrimony" was enjoyed, for which 35 beautiful prizes were awarded.

Miss Barksdale wore a white net frock over silk with trimmings of garlands of French flowers.

Dancing Party

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Polk will entertain on Thursday evening with a dancing party in their home on Union avenue in honor of their niece, Miss Marie Newcomb, and their brother, Mr. Chatham Hunter, who is home from college for the holidays.

Red and green will be the color motif in the decorations, Christmas bells, holly, red tulle bows and all kinds of Christmas favors being artistically arranged. During the evening punch will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Polk will receive her guests in a gown of black net embroidered in sequins over satin. Miss Newcomb will wear an exquisite frock of two-toned rose and pink chiffon over satin.

The guest list will include about 250 friends of the honor guests.

114 Eggs A Day Now

Instead of 25 A Day

This Means About $126 Extra Income Per Month for Mrs. Ropp.

"I have 200 hens, including late pullets not old enough to lay, and have been getting 25 to 30 eggs a day. Then I tried Don Sung and am now getting 107 to 114 eggs a day."—Mrs. Essie B. Ropp, R. 2, Little Rock, Ind.

This increase of 7 dozen a day in the middle of winter, at 80c a dozen, makes $126 extra income per month. Don Sung for her 200 hens cost about $2.50. It paid her, and we guarantee it will pay you.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that eggs for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in 30 seconds, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, keeps the eggs in better matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send 50c or $1.00 (includes tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dunger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Need of Prayer," by Riddick, was most pleasing.

Tirani's Gavotte and Lullaby and Scherzo in B minor, by Chopin, were faultlessly rendered by Miss Susie Laverne DeShazo, a true artist of whom Memphisans feel justly proud.

One of the most attractive numbers on the program was the concerto in A minor, first movement, by Schumann, rendered by Miss Hazel Cutrer, with orchestral part on second piano. Miss Cutrer's technique and style are unusual and under the guidance of such a master as Mr. Bohman a brilliant future awaits her.

"Happy Song," by Del Riego, and the ever appealing "Rosary," by Nevin, were sung with much feeling by a ladies' quartet composed of Miss Lucy Gray Canadine, Miss Alice McLaughlin, Mrs. H. J. Wood and Mrs. J. A. Scott.

Mrs. Garner Strickland added much to the pleasure of the occasion with her artistic accompaniments.

Miss Belle Wade, chairman of the monthly concerts, and Mrs. J. P. Hill, president of the club, were assisted club.
